

Christopher Aaron Alex Currier Jr.

October 28, 2004 - October 1, 2022

Christopher Aaron Alex Currier, Jr., 17, of Manassas, Virginia, and Towson, Maryland passed away on October 1, 2022. He was born on October 28, 2004, to Gihan Bastien and Christopher Aaron Currier, Sr in Fair Oaks, Virginia. Christopher was a senior at Osborn Park High school. He was a bright, kind soul, who's unexpected death shattered the hearts of those who knew and loved him. While appearing quiet and reserved, Chris was fun and goofy with a smile that lit up the room. He was quirky and creative with a wide range of talents and interests. He was deeply loved by everyone who knew him, and his presence will be greatly missed.

Christopher's heavenly home coming was preceded by his grandmother, Brenda Currier. He is survived by his parents, Gihan Bastien and Christopher Aaron Currier, Sr, and mother-in-love, Helen Jespersen; Brothers: Samuel, Elijah, and Eric; Grandparents: Charles and Michelle Alex, Daniel Currier, and William and Karen Douglas; and so many beloved family members and friends.

A memorial service will be held for Christopher at 1:00 PM on Sunday, October 16, 2022, at Pierce Funeral Home (9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia 20110).

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the family directly. For “ Chris always made me feel like I could be myself without getting judged and he was the kindest person I will never, EVER forget. He was my new friend this year and it's devastating to imagine my life with him gone. I miss him every single day and I'm constantly thinking of him. Chris will always be in my heart. Prayers to his parents, younger brothers, and friends. -Joanna DeVane
