“ Chris was a kind, thoughtful, and caring person. He watched our cats when we went on vacation, and helped shovel driveways during snow storms. He eagerly greeted people with a friendly hello when passing by on the street. He was all round a very good person, and will be greatly missed.

“ I worked with Chris for about seventeen years prior to 2000. He was always willing to help out when necessary with whatever task came along. I admired Christopher for his community service, especially with the Special Olympics.

May He Rest In Peace, Charles

“ Chris was the kind of man who would always lend a helping hand. He would do anything he could for you and was always appreciative of friendship in return. I will never forget Chris. He always brought a little sunshine into a dreary day.

“ Chris and I sat next to each other for many years during his time at EPA. He had a good heart and I was very fond of him. I always admired his intelligence and dedication to teaching children how to swim.
