

Christopher Alan Pollard

July 19, 1975 - August 31, 2023

Chris died peacefully in his home in Manassas on August 31, 2023. He was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend. He was a gentle giant, that would do anything you ask of him. He loved his family, and his family loved him. He was a constant and steady rock. He never let the world see him rattled. A keeper of secrets, a true confidante. His smile was infectious, his kindness was inspiring, and his love was true. He didn't have to see or talk to you every day, but when he did see you, you knew how much you meant to him.

Chris was very smart, a "facts and figures" man. He knew the ins and outs on almost everything. There was not a topic he could not intelligently discuss with someone. If he didn't know it, he was a humble guy and let you know and then proceeded to read and study the subject until he was an expert. He was a gamer and played games the same way. He played until he was an expert or conqueror of the game. Skyrim and Minecraft... 😊

He is survived by his Mother and Father, Regenia Pollard and Alfred Pollard. His siblings, Monica Lewis Carness, Jason Pollard and Dawn Pollard, his Nieces and Nephews, Geena Lewis, Beatrice Lewis, Mario Pollard, Alyssa Pollard, and Dominic Pollard.

Chris meant more to his family than he ever understood. Please join us as we celebrate his beautiful life this Saturday at Pierce Funeral Home, at 1 PM.

Bring flowers, battery powered candles (lightsabers optional) and a favorite story about our favorite human “ Chris this is devastating to hear of your passing. I always looked forward to the opportunity to talk to you when i knew that our paths would cross. The world has definitely lost a good dude. Thank you for always being a ray of light in a world that too often overcast with darkness.
