

Christopher Henry Street

June 10, 1955 - April 21, 2026

Christopher Henry Street, 70, passed away on April 21, 2026. He is survived by his brother, Geoffrey Street; sister-in-law, Shelley Street; cousin, Susan Moldt; niece, Jennifer Goodwin; nephew, Matthew Street; and three grandnieces.

Chris was born on June 10, 1955, in Morristown, to Christopher C. and Elva E. Street. He graduated from Morristown High School in 1973 and went on to earn his degree from Dartmouth College in 1977. During his time at Morristown High School, Chris was a standout athlete and a starting offensive lineman on the 1972 State Championship football team.

Chris built a career as a computer programmer, working for Computer Horizons and Prudential Insurance, as well as working as a self-employed consultant.

A passionate baseball fan, Chris was devoted to the New York Yankees. He was also an avid bicyclist who enjoyed long-distance touring. A true bibliophile, he had a deep love for science fiction, archaeology, and environmental literature.

Chris was a lifelong member of the National Audubon Society. He traveled widely across the United States for birdwatching and had an impressive ability to identify birds by both sight and sound.

Chris will be remembered for his curiosity, dedication to his passions, and enduring love of nature. His memory is a blessing to all who knew him.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Chris's memory may be made to the New Jersey Audubon Society.
