“ Dearest Barbara, Woody & Andrea, These past few days have been filled with such intense grief mixed with the sweetest reverie. I met your family on a cold snowy day in late 1988. A meeting which brought such color, life, adventure, excitement, faith and the most ultimate love & compassion into my world. Your family welcomed me with open arms and I remember Chris as the sweetest young boy with a shy smile and sparkling eyes. Over the years I watched him grow into an amazing man with a keen intellect and a heart that eclipses the sky. There is so much love moving through this world because of Chris. All the tears and beautiful stories from family and friends is a true testament to Chris's incredible soul. Chris will be missed but as we all live and breathe; no-one in your family will ever be unloved or forgotten. Godspeed Chris!
Much love from the very bottom of my heart,

“ Chris, this wonderful photograph captures your million-dollar smile and mischievous eyes that welcomed everyone you met and always made them feel that you had a secret to share. We so admired your bravery throughout this battle. I especially felt privileged to be able to share some fun visits at your lovely home and experience your menagerie. What you managed to create there was a little bit of heaven-on-earth in my book. We miss you terribly but take comfort in knowing your joyful spirit is all around us. With much love, Bob and Suzanne
