“ Christy and I (along with two other friends) were lab partners in Biology this spring. Although we just met recently, I could tell Christy was very devoted to her family and her life at home. I was informed of this tragedy only yesterday and regret that I am unable to attend the services. Please know that I give you my deepest sympathy. I wish you all the best.
You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Christy was a very intelligent woman. She had knowledge of so many different things. She was not judgmental and treated everyone with love and respect. She was a wonderful, loving and caring person. She loved her husband and kids so very much. Christy was a very dear friend and will be greatly missed.

“ I didn't know Christy or Justin but knew her sister in law and his Aunt, Michelle very well in high school. It saddens me to learn of this and I just wanted you to know that I will keep both families in my prayers. Michelle, I think of you often and miss you. God bless you and your family!

“ Christy was one of my Best Friends we use to talk about our Highschool days and she has taught me allot on parenting. I remember when I last saw her the first thing we did was pull out that old high school yearbook and laugh at how we looked. She has brought so much Joy & Happiness into my life and she will be missed deeply. She was such a fun person always knew what to say to make everyone happy. I have so much Love for her that words can not describe and my life will not be the same without her in it. I was so proud of her going back to school and all the great grades she was getting. She was a wonderful Mother to her boys and I wonderful friend to me.

My deepest Sympathies to you I can only imagine how hard it is for you. My thoughts and prayers are with you & your family.

“ Dear Rich, Jon, Jeremy and Carolyn;

I was so sad to hear of the accident. I just can not believe this has happened. Words like kind, caring, compassionate, open, honest, sharing, fun-loving, spirited, vibrant, special, dedicated, determined, wholesome, good, happy, strong and loving come to mind when I think of Christy.

Some things just don't make sense. I can only imagine how sad this time must be for you. Christy believed in God, and life, and she wants her children to be happy, and experience happy, new and fun things. I know that is what she wants. Please know that there are so many people ready and willing to help you now, and in the months ahead.

I can't explain enough how sad I was to hear of the accident. Your sorrow is shared by many. I will miss her. I will miss her e-mails, the updates, and the neat things she used to forward to me.

Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you now, and any time in the future.
