“ I'm deeply saddened that my longtime friend, Cindy lost her battle with cancer after fighting so hard to overcome it. She was a remarkable, caring person who was always willing to listen and offer support. I will cherish the memories of the happy and sad times we shared over the years and she will hold a special place in my heart forever. My sincere sympathy to Chuck and Cindy's family as you grieve her loss and may you find comfort knowing that she is finally at peace. Cheryl Giles

“ Dear Cindy, You were my best friend...you loved the Lord with all your heart! And Charlie, you loved him so..you were (and are) truly the bravest person I have ever met. And I feel honored to have shared a bit of your life with you. What a Homecoming when you fell into the arms of our Saviour. Your faith never waivered. You knew that He had a perfect plan for your life. I guess God must have needed an Angel in Heaven. We will all miss you so, but you left such a legacy...in Sean, Sammie, Riley, Oliver and Austin...I can still see the light in your eyes when you talked about one of the grandbabies. Charlie, you are a wonderful husband...and man. How she loved all of you. Her Dad, Grammy, Dot and Gary, Cyndi and Gracie, her nieces, Stephanie and Meagan.. And all her friends. We love you, Cindy. Keep that light burning for all of us, when we join you "one glad morning". We love you, sweetie..Gretchen and Herb Robinson :o)

“ Cindy was always so positive, even when she was fighting her health battles, so many to fight, she remained upbeat and always had a smile and a vibrant conversation. I missed her when she retired and moved away, and I will always miss seeing her and discussing our dietary health issues that we had in common, we even shared the same birthday. She was SUCH a trooper!!!
