“ Nancy, Larry and Linda,

I was heartbroken to hear the news of C.B.'s passing. I told Linda Wednesday she had been on my mind this week and I had planned to call her Valentines Day. I am so hurt I didn't call when I had the inclination.

I know Clara Bell as my "Other Mother" and you all are my brothers and sisters, and still are to this day. When I called mom, she too cried as we remembered our family in Virginia. I have such wonderful childhood memories of trips back to Arlington to visit with mom and dad. These memories are cherished and will live with me forever. I miss and love each of you. Please know I love your mom as deeply as you do. She, Milburn and Phil are angels I look forward to see waiting for me when I find the gates of heaven. I wish I were with you today to say " I love you, see you later", because we will meet again.

With all the love in the world,

Pam Hopkins-Witzel God Daughter- Chattanooga, TN

Dear Family

i wish to say how sorry I am to hear of the passing of my dear friend Clara Bell Adams. She was a great neighbor and the best of friends to me when we both lived at William Watters House. We had great times and plenty of laughs together back in the day, and she will be missed. My thoughts are with all of you.

“ February 12, 2015 It is with great sadness to hear of Clara Bells passing this week. My sincere sympathy to Larry, Nancy and Linda. My husband, Gary and I were honored to have known her through the years. We were able to spend time with Clara Bell, Larry and Kay celebrating birthdays, a few holidays outings and just relaxing over a meal at Famous Dave's, Quizno's and Dairy Queen to top the evening. My separate time spent with her was a church function celebrating Thanksgiving week. She knew everyone and they of course, knew her. We spent a good part of the day together which was very rewarding. I visited several weeks ago at the nursing home and I am so grateful I had that quality time with her. We celebrate 13 February 2015 to two "special people" whom I hold dear to my heart,"Clara Bell and Gary". May they both rest in peace. Larry, you have been such a Wonderful Son to your mother and have so many memories to cherish. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Adams family at this difficult time. Blessings,

“ Here is the link for pictures from Clara Bell's 90th Birthday party on Nov 16, 2014: <http://1drv.ms/15Lk6p6>

Many, many thanks to everyone who was special to our mom and all who attended her birthday party--she really enjoyed it tremendously.

And many thanks to all who visited with us during the viewing and her Celebration of Life service and your cards, flowers, and other words and sentiments of remembrance and support.

Words cannot fully express our appreciation to you all.

Sincerely,

Nancy Shimp, daughter
