“ *Daddy,
I know we had a rocky and at times loud relationship, and I know you thought I hated you~but you could not have been more wrong. I love you so much and I always, ALWAYS will. You were the solid ground I knew I could come to when my life took a wrong turn. Without you I would not have the three wonderful children I have now. Thank you for being my rock and for showing them how to be a strong and caring person. I pray my son turns out to be as wonderful a man as you. There will never be another man in my life I will love more or miss as much.*

*Ever your loning 'knucklehead'

“ Daddy,
It has been over a month now since you left us, I still can't believe it. You were a wonderful, loving father who was always there for your family and friends. You gave so much of yourself and I am sure that a lot of people did not know this about you. If you had it you gave it to whom ever was in need even if it meant you went without. Words will never express the deep sadness and loss that I feel. Daddy I will always love you!

“ I have a hard time believing that Tubby will not be there when I am at my place in Sandy Level. We had many good times the last year and a half as i got my place set up. He didnt get to finish teaching me about the deer....or the bears...or shooting guns. He will be missed more than he could ever imagine.
