“ My deepest sympathy to Ma Nunley, Jenny, Fred & David. For me, Mr. Nunley was a kind, gentle soul with a little impish elf peeking out now and then. I'll always remember his uncanny ability to sleep in any position, standing up, sitting down, jostling in a car, in the middle of a conversation, or anywhere and our mutual fondness for Geno's Fried Chicken. Heaven now has a special addition.
Love, Karen

“ Remembering my friend..... The first time I met Clarence in 1968 he was a guest in our home and fell asleep while I fixed coffee and dessert. Then there was our flight to Houston in 84 when we had to advance our departure time by 20 minutes to get him to leave the house in time, and our motor home trip to the VPI game and all our fun timeshare trips together. He was our 'little ole leprechean', a big tease. He may have been small in statue but very large in heart.

“ I remember Clarence as a warm, sweet, and very interesting man who took the time to get to know me. What I remember most was his gentleness, his laughter, and his sense of humor. While I will miss knowing he is no longer on this earth plane, I celebrate his life and those who loved him. I am happy that he has made his transition into a peaceful place. Clarence thank you for giving me the opportunity to meet and get to know you. Your kindness and your smile live on.

“ We first met in the 70's when he interviewed me to be his secretary. He was Supervisor of Construction for Prince William Co. Schools. I recall typing his college thesis some years later. . . must have been for one of his Master Degrees?? We have remained friends since--staying in touch over the years.

I thank him for his patience and training that gave me a better understanding of construction and building--as well as drafting--which has come in handy on occasion being that our livelihood is in the construction industry. He gave us advice and guidance when needed.

Both he and Phyllis have shared their lives with us . . . luncheons, holiday dinners, birthdays, etc. Our family has valued their friendship. Our boys have regarded him as a "grandfather" figure or "kind uncle". He was a kind and gentle, unassuming man that loved being around people and spoke well of everyone. . . never knew him to have an enemy or hatred for anything. He holds a special place in my heart and many fond memories.

Mrs. Nunley, Fredrick, Jenny and David our prayers are with you as you deal with his loss in your life.

Thank heaven that there is that reunion in the sky after this life is over. We will see him again.
