“ There were always a host of characters and "unique individuals" on any FAHS Eagles football team, and the undefeated 72-73 championship team was no exception. Clay Barnwell was NEVER one of those guys. Instead Clay was one of those cool, calm, collected, steady, committed, hard-working, no drams kind of players who came to play and give his best every day. He worked hard, practiced hard, studied his assignments, and executed his duties at linebacker with consistency and precision. He never tried to be flashy. He just tried to always be there to make the play. He always put the team and his teammates first with never a thought for himself. None of what he was as a player was really all that surprising because it was directly reflective of the kind of person he was. Clay was good people who never had a mean word for anyone. He treated everybody with courtesy and respect. I am proud to have known him and privileged to have been on the Eagles together our senior year. Rest in Peace, Clay.

I also was a friend of Clay. We were best friends while attending Frankfurt High School and were roommates after graduation living in Alexandria, VA. His mother and father were my 2nd parents who I will never forget. Clay a different took different paths but I always loved him as a brother and admired his generosity. I miss you Clay and you are always in my thoughts! Tom B.

“ Your dad was always a wonderful man. Quiet at times but immensely proud of his kids and supportive of his family. You could see how it lit up talking about you both. It was a true pleasure to have known him and I know that he has helped to make you the adults you are today. He will be missed.

“ Clay was a true friend and could always be trusted with information that you didn't want other people to know but wanted advice. Clay and I rented a apartment together until the day my wife and I was married. Clay was a member of my wedding party and escorted by mother at the wedding. Clay attended Washington Redskins games with Mona and I and also we had lots of fun hunting and fishing together. Mona and I thought very highly of Clay but through time and children of our own we lost contact. I last saw Clay at Lowes and we talked for about 30 minutes he was so proud of his children and we talked about getting together and visiting Jerry Owens just to surprise him. Clay will be missed and the family will be in our prayers. I will miss you Clay!!!

Godspeed,

“ Clay was my best friend...like a brother to me. We had many adventures over the years and they were all made more memorable and fun because of Clay's pleasant nature and who he was.
