“ My sincerest condolences to the entire family; you are all in my thoughts and in my prayers. Clint was such a warm and generous person and a good friend, no matter how much time or distance passed between us. I will always cherish the memories of time spent talking and laughing together or listening to music. Rest peacefully my friend; you left us way too soon.

“ You have been taken from us to soon my friend. We played music together and went on some great adventures many years ago. After 30 years we were able to reunite this past year and it felt like no time had past at all. Rest well my friend and when I see you on the other side we will play some sets together.
