“ I am so sorry that we cannot physically make the drive up for the visitation and funeral service. It breaks my heart to not be there with you. I loved Uncle Clive's humor - I remember well all the times the families would get together. The trip to Niagara Falls was my first trip there as a child - what fun that was. Mom still likes to tell me stories how she and Uncle Clive would tease each other as children - and some of the pranks they would play. I will miss Uncle Clive - but rest assured we will all be together again. Praise God for the life of my Uncle Clive.

Dear Aunt Lois, Gary, Jeff, and Robin, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all.

“ I always enjoyed visiting with Clive and Lois when I came to WV for the Family Reunions. Like his Dad and Mom, they were also warm and welcoming to me. I recall one day seeing him at Keith Alderman's house and sitting around the kitchen table. a few years ago, Clive, a unreconstructed Republican, said, "We have to get a Republican back in the White House." Not realizing that I had fled the Republican Party during GWB's days, he expected an enthusiastic endorsement of his comment. I did not have the nerve to get into a political discussion with this fine man, so I kept my big mouth shut.

I hope for memories of Clive will comfort Lois, Gary, and Clive's family in this enormous loss.

“ As the father of my good friend Gary, I always think highly of Mr. Alderman. I got to meet him only a couple times. He was a gentle, good-natured and caring man, and he leaves behind a clear legacy in his son.

My heart goes out to the whole family over this sudden loss. May you find comfort in your faith that Clive now rests in a heavenly eternity.

Uncle "Junior" was one of the most interesting people I remember as a child, that did not change as I became an adult. I always found him easy to be around, easy to talk with and I know I am a better person for knowing him.
I will miss him but I will always remember him.*

“ As a child and an adult my Uncle Clive was awesome, I can remember riding through the mountains, looking at deer, stopping at every flea market and garage sale, watching the Redskins play football, family functions, reunions, talking, and many stories.
