I worked with Buddy many years ago at Woolco in Sterling. He always helped me with the heavy items when was unable to pick them up. We had become friends and ran into each other at Woolco in Manassas several times. It was always good to talk to him and find out how the family was doing. Such a loss to your family. I am very sorry for your loss.

“Buddy was always friendly to all and welcomed everyone with a heartfelt handshake and smile. Even though we weren't a close family he would always remember me when I saw him. I was glad I had a chance to have a meal with him near the end on last year. I am sure he is happy now with his son and brothers and sisters and mom and dad which preceded him in heaven.
