

Constance Anne Marshburn

December 29, 1944 - May 7, 2020

Constance Anne Marshburn, 75, of Gainesville VA, passed away peacefully at home on May 7, 2020. Connie is survived by her husband of 59 years Gerald Marshburn; her daughter Penny Robin of Bristow; son Ken of Manassas; daughter-in-law Jennifer of Fairfax; sister Betty Lou and her husband Richard of Winchester. She also leaves behind her beloved grandchildren Trevor, Devon, Madison and Jasen and great granddaughter Zalea. She is preceded in death by her son David, her parents and two brothers.

Connie was born in Upperville, VA, and lived a happy childhood with her parents and siblings in Middleburg VA. In 1961 she married Gerald, the love of her life. After the birth of her three children she became a successful hairstylist and respected salon owner of Five Star Hair for 40 years. Besides her undying love for her family and career she had many other interests, including gardening, traveling with her family and friends, reading and going to plays, shows and museums. Although she enjoyed the beach, and cruises, her favorite spot was a quiet place on a lake. She loved roses, sunsets, cardinal birds, listening to Elvis and playing cards, especially with her grandchildren and her sister "Bess". Oh, and don't forget, taking money from her poker buddies! These last few years, due to her limited mobility, you could not tear her away from her Facebook! Connie will be remembered most for her caring soul and always wanting to help others in need. Her home and heart were always open to everyone. She will be missed and mourned by many. But while here she touched many lives and we and the world are a much better place for it.

Mrs. Marshburn will be cremated per her wishes and buried at Ivy Hill Cemetery in Upperville, VA. A memorial service will be planned for later when her many family and friends can attend.

“ It is hard to comprehend that Connie is gone from us. She was like a Sister to me and her and Gerald always treated me so good. I cherish all the wonderful memories shared with the entire family and watching Penny, Kenny and David grow up. The only comfort we can get is knowing Connie is out of pain and at peace with her Mom, Dad, Brothers and Lil David. Rest In Peace dear Connie.

“ Such a beautiful obituary. Very fitting for the beautiful person that Connie was, inside and out. There are so many beautiful, fun memories and I treasure them. I still cant grasp that she is gone but I know she is only gone from our physical world and she will always be with us. I know she is healthy now and happy with her family in Heaven. I pray for peace and comfort for Gerald and Penny and Kenny and Betty Lou and her beautiful grandchildren. We all loved her so much and she will very much missed.
