“ My deepest condolences to Lynne, Kathy and family for their loss. It has been almost 30 years since I saw my Godmother Dena, it was at my wedding. She was of course all smiles and on that dance floor with her husband John, dancing the night away. Dena had an auora of pure happiness, love, kindness, and generosity. It's no surprise that each photo I have of her she is smiling ear to ear, happy to be with family and friends. Remembering her wonderful and gentle soul will forever remain in our hearts.

“ My Aunt Deana was the warmest, kindest, fun loving and devote family person in the world. She was also very unselfish always caring about other people.

Many years ago when my mother passed away and my father was not well and out of work she and her husband John stepped up and gave a helping hand. My father always talks about how "wonderfully" they treated him

God Bless
