“ I retired from VDOT last year, and have known Joe since his first days there, and always appreciated working with him. Ever the champion of the underdog (all of us workforce employees) we had some wonderful and memorable conversations, and would have saved the world, given the power. Perhaps he can see to all that even more closely, now.

I am shocked and saddened to learn of his sudden passing, and even though I've seen him seldom over the last few years, I deeply regret knowing he no longer inhabits his place here with us. He loved us and made us laugh, and we loved him right back.

Farewell, Joe; we'll miss you.

Acceptance is often our only Strength; to all the loved ones he leaves behind, I wish you Peace and the Strength to Accept.

“ At this time I want to express my condolences to the family. This is indeed a shock to all of us and we are saddened by this. But as the scriptures say, the wages sin pays is death but the gift God gives is eternal life. I pray that you receive the comfort and hope your faith will bring you.

“ My condolences to you and family; Joe was a unique guy and I enjoyed his down to earth wit and humor. He will be missed by all here at vdot, even though he left and went to mancon to work.

I pray for your family and know that God has Joe with him now. He is looking down on us and telling us to remember the good times we all had.

God Bless you and your family.
