“ Mr. Plaster, Ricky, Brian, Tammy, and the extended Plaster family:

I was so sorry to hear of your wife's/mom's passing. I cannot recall thoughts of OPHS wrestling without having her face and voice being an integral part of my memories. She was extremely proud of all of her kids and her face lit up whenever she talked about you. Despite being 3,000 miles away and a seemingly lifetime removed from the last time I saw "Mrs. Plaster," I find myself staring out the window and thinking: "I will miss her." My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

*Love,
Jimmy Greene*

“ *Mr.Plaster,Rick,Brian & Tammy,
I have a lot of wonderful memories of your mom.You could always count on her to be there to cheer the whole team on out on the softball fields.She always made the games so much Fun.No one could out Cheer Mrs. Plaster! We couldn't help but WIN with her on our side. I also cherish the gifts that she made for my kids when they were born. The engraved Gold Christmas Ornaments our always high a top on our Christmas Tree and a family favorite.The Easter Baskets that she made that are a Family Tradition. The only Easter Baskets That my kids have ever used and still use today.She had a lot of love to give, and you knew Family was First in her life. Our Thoughts and Prayers our with you ,Dean,Lori,Travis & Kacey*

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the Plaster family. May you find comfort in God's loving invitation to "throw all your anxiety upon him because he cares for you" (1 Peter 5;7) and that he is "near to those that are broken at heart and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."--Psalm 34;18. It is God's desire that you see Cora again in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful conditions where death will be no more. Please read and draw strength from God's promises of future earthly events at John 5;28,29; Psalm 37;29; Rev. 21;3,4 and Psalm 83;18. Please rest your hope in these promises during this difficult time. Take care,
