What a wonderful and loving tribute to Craig and the family. It has everything I will remember about Craig. That larger than life smile, his love for "bikes", the Oriloles, Terrapins and my favorite, yes the delicious Moscato. But the biggest smiles I saw were saved for his "Sug" and the grandkids and especially for you Diane. I smiled when I saw the picture from Chrissy's wedding and could see the balloon strings hanging down and thought "whatcha doing?...Just blowing up balloons..."whatcha doing?...Just blowing up balloons... repeat repeat and repeat, Craig stop calling! we are blowing up a million balloons! What an adventure you all had together over the years. Cherish those memories. Love to all of you but most importantly, yes Craig I am still married! Love, Karey and Gary Wolfrey

What a loving tribute. I never met him but he was talked of often so even if you didn't know him, you felt kind of like you did through Diane and Chrissy heart filled words they always shared about him. I know he was a great man. There are no words that can make this any easier for his family and friends but wanted you to know how special he was to someone who never met him face to face. Yes very special man indeed. Hugs and prayers..... Love y'all
