

Cristina M. Weir

March 13, 1989 - July 31, 2017

Cristina Marie Weir, age 28, of Manassas, Virginia was taken from this world too soon, on Monday, July 31, 2017, at her residence in Denver, Colorado.

She was born on March 13, 1989, in Alexandria, Virginia, and as anyone who knew her would tell you, she loved her birthday. Cristina had an insatiable love of learning, whether it be in a Russian Studies class at The College of William & Mary, on the job as Operations Manager at Velocity Global, or on the streets of a new city that beckoned her to explore its city limits.

Cristina was generous. She paid attention. It was the kind of attention that only comes from genuinely caring about other people – their happiness, their needs. Her mind was a rolodex; she saw things most people didn't, because she really was that generous – an active generosity. Cristina never forgot a name or a face, because people are what mattered most to Cristina. People, and her devoted cat, Oatie.

In addition to the many cherished friends she leaves behind, the family that grieves for her includes: parents, Michele Kaye Weir & Charles Weir; brother, Bailey Weir; sister, Katie Weir; niece, Abigail Lyndee Roberts; nephew, Ethan Roberts; maternal grandmother, DeeDee Younis; great aunt, Patricia Butchock; great uncle, Steve Butchock, all from Manassas, Virginia; and her godmother, Pam Ruoff, of Fairfax, Virginia.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to www.gofundme.com/CristinaWeir. Funds raised will be used to cover funeral expenses, and to establish the Cristina M. Weir Education Fund for at-risk youth in Manassas, Virginia.

Visitation will be from 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. on Monday, August 7, 2017, at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 8, 2017, at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.”

“ To the Weir family. I wish I had the words to comfort all of you. I can remember prior to the day Christina was born how happy Michele was walking about working at the Vienna Post Office. I remember reading Christina's accolades written about her in the Manassas Journal Messenger Newspaper upon her graduation from High School. I have said two Rosary's for her. One at Church one at home. I know this will shock you as it does most people I pray each morning and night for about 400 people. Relatives sons, daughters and Postal relatives. When I was MPOO overseeing 102 Post Offices I always made it a point to attend Wakes or Funererals whether 2 miles or 60 miles away. I know a day will never pass that she won't be in your thoughts. She will eternally be in my nightly prayers. Be Well.

“ I opened my home to Cristina when she was in high school. She spent six months with Ambre and I. Even though she was going through a difficult time, she did not lose sight of the importance of school and got a job at Starbucks. It didn't take her long to fit right in with my family, including our many cats.

I was so happy for her when she got accepted at W&M and again when she took the job in Denver that allowed her to travel. When Ambre told me that Cristina was stopping by to see her in Atlanta a few months ago, she was so happy and made plans for the two of them to tour the city. I am grateful that they had that time together.

I cannot find the words to express my sadness for your loss of a beautiful person so was blossoming into a wonderful woman. I can only hope that the love and memories that you shared will provide you comfort.

I have included some photos of Cristina from high school that I thought you'd like to have.

“ Prayers for this beautiful soul and her grieving family and friends. A loss this great will change time forever. Eventually, you will reflect back and life will be defined before and after you lost your beautiful girl. I wish I could tell you that your grief will pass but it won't. You will learn a new 'normal' and day by day, one step at a time, sometimes one minute at a time, you will survive this loss. Not only will you remember her every day, the peoples' lives she touched will also remember her. WE are here for you now and when the numbness subsides. And never forget, you will see her and hold her in your arms again. Prayers and Love to you all.

“ The first time I met Cristina at W&M, I thought , "Wow this young lady knows everything about campus stuff, she was a beacon of light to all the college kids around her and became my son's Best Friend. The last time I saw Cristina was the weekend the Pope came to D.C., so many people, so many blocked roads and Cristina navigated the city like she owned it. Once again, a beacon of light and leadership. at dinner I was amazed on how much that young college girl had grown into a beautiful, smart, brave, independent woman. I kept singing her praises that evening and even whispered to my son that he should think about not just being friends with her, Cristina is a woman that any mom would want to be their "daughter in law"!!! From the time I met you dear sweet Cristina, I loved you and wanted you in our lives forever, but this is nothing new, you had that effect on everyone that had the grace to meet you and had the blessing of knowing you, Rest in peace dear sweet girl and keep watch over all your W&M Buddies.

“ I can hear you now, Cristina, tearing apart the website format and colors on this page. I love you, friend. The past two days have been the longest in my life, but I keep finding you present in these wonderful ways. A cat walked across my path on the way to your Mom's house, and I swear it was Oatie. My daughter asked me to put a tattoo sticker on her arm, and it was a frog. My neighbor came to the door with new glasses, and they were your Ray Bans. I turned on the radio, and Taylor Swift - your favorite - was playing. ;)

It hasn't sunk in yet that you're gone. I feel like I'm powering through this the way you would. I keep thinking that if I keep staring at my screen and typing away, that I'll eventually look up and you'll be there, typing away on your laptop, sitting across from me, the way we used to sit at 2am before a Forum.

Your memory is eternal, Cristina. I promise to honor it by trying to meet each day with the same awe that you had, and to treat people with the generosity and loyalty that you did.

I hate this. I love you.
