“ Dear Joe and family, We are praying for comfort and strength from our Lord Jesus for you all. Doug and I were so sad to hear of the passing of your dear wife Cindy. She was a wonderful trainer for Evangelism Explosion and Doug used what he learned there again recently. We will see her again one day. She is not gone but "gone ahead".

“ I am blessed to have known Cindy over many years. We worked together, went to Church together, had family/friend gatherings together. She was always an inspiration and cheery with her beautiful smile! I did not expect her to be leaving us this early but God must have wanted her to be with Him. I look forward to seeing her again one day.

Prayers for God's peace and comfort for Joe and all the family.

“ My sincerest sympathies to Cindy's Joe, her sons and daughter-in-laws, her grandchildren, and her dear close friends. I was blessed to be welcomed and treated as a family member, to care for several generations of Cindy and Joe's beloved pets. She had The Biggest Heart, and always cared deeply and diligently for them. She will be sorely missed, but I know she is now whole again. We promise to take care, Cindy....we know that would be your wish.

“ Dearest Aunt Cindy,
Travis and I will always cherish the memories of our Christmas's together. You and Uncle Joe will always have stake at the end of our dining room table. You, Uncle Joe, My parents and the Posey's will always have that space each Christmas designated as yours as if there were name tags posted there. Every year will be a Christmas prayer in your memory. May you rest in peace. We love you forever and always.

“ Cindy was my dearest childhood friend and my 'go to' gal when things got hard. She always spoke kindly of everyone and gave loving, Christian advice when I needed it. If anyone epitomized the acro-phrase "WWJD?", it was Cindy. She loved her family and friends unconditionally, but also spoke her mind based on biblical beliefs. I miss her now and forever. I'm at peace knowing she's safe and happy in the Lord's hands.

“ I loved our trip to Rhode Island! I got to fall asleep each night talking to my Aunt Cindy. I will cherish those memories forever. Thank you, Aunt Cindy. And I'm sorry I yelled at you for being too nice as I drove us the wrong way 😊

“ I remember when I met first time Mrs. Creeden and her loving husband Mr. Creeden, when they brought in their sweet canine pet Tobey for exam about 4 years ago. I could read her kindness, compassion, and wonderful personality at that moment. Ever since we always hugged when we met; I felt like she was a close relative of mine, despite our completely different background. ‘Good people don't last long’. I'm thankful to share memories with her, and sure will keep it for a long long time. I'am deeply saddened she is no more with us. May Her soul rest in peace! She will be missed dearly. My heartfelt condolences to Mr. Creeden, family and friends. My thought are with you during this difficult times.

SHE IS GONE

(Anonymous)

*You can shed tears that she is gone.
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes & pray that she'll come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her.
Or you can be full of the love you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she's gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

Cindy and I used to work together for a number of years and we also attended church together with her and her precious family. Joe, we're so very sorry to hear about Cindy's passing. Thankfully we know we'll see her again when our Lord calls us home also. Please know we are praying for you and your family.
