

Cynthia "Cindy" Sue Goletz

April 25, 1944 - January 18, 2018

Cindy Goletz passed away Thursday, January 18, 2018 at INOVA Fairfax hospital after a brief illness. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Cindy was born in Indiana, Pennsylvania April 25, 1944. She was the daughter of Lois (Pentz) and Stephen Zias Sr. Cindy and George were married August 31, 1968. She was raised in a small coal mining town of Ernest Pennsylvania. Though a daughter of a coal miner, she related to that of Loretta but not with the singing talents. Upon completing her education, she ventured off to an airline school in Kansas City, but this wasn't her calling. She ventured back home to try her hand at cosmetology (hair dresser) which she liked and was very good at. (authored by Cindy's husband)

A new calling beckoned her, working for the federal government in Washington D.C. She was employed at the Central Intelligence Agency where she enjoyed her work and the mission of the CIA. Her latter work years she worked within the Human Resources, something she enjoyed since she was very much a people person. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Cindy was preceded in death by her parents and nephew, Steven Zias III (Spunky), son-in-law Shawn Fuchs, and two grandchildren, Sara and Dakota Fuchs. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Surviving Cindy is her husband George of Warrenton; daughter Michelle Fuchs also of Warrenton; daughter Jennifer Hendrix and husband Robert of Roanoke, Virginia; and son George Jr. (Jake) and wife Victoria (Tori) of Orlando Florida. Brothers Stephen Zias Jr. of Indiana, Pennsylvania and Barry Zias (Annmarie) of Wilmington Delaware; sister-in-law Betty Goletz of Pennsylvania; and brother-in-law Bernie Goletz of Florida. And last but not least one grand-dog, Sparkle. (authored by Cindy's husband)

The love and true sparkle of her life were her living grandchildren. Boulder and Meadow Fuchs of Warrenton; Ashley Hendrix of Roanoke; and Gwendolyn, Coralie and Jorja Goletz of Orlando. "Nannie" could spend hours upon hours rocking her grandchildren. When each were smaller, it was not unusual to have two or three grandchildren on the rocker. A smile on her face, cherished thoughts in her head and always a warm spot in her heart. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Cindy and her husband are members of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Warrenton. Though this was their home parish, any Catholic church was considered their second home. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Viewing for Cindy will be Friday, January 26 at Pierce Funeral Home, Manassas, Virginia from 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM and 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM with a rosary at 7:00 PM. A mass of Christian burial will be conducted at 11:00 AM, Saturday, January 27 at St. John's. Burial will follow at a later date to be announced in Arlington National Cemetery, an honor Cindy and her husband both desired. (authored by Cindy's husband)

Cindy was always a "giver" and not a "taker". The family's wish is for in lieu of flowers, a donation can be made in her honor to the Warrenton Pregnancy Center, a Catholic mass in her honor, or charitable organization of your choosing. (authored by Cindy's husband)

“Michelle and family, I just learned last night while in VA (living in NC now) about Cindy. I met her back in the Ritchie days and Girl Scout days, and it was very clear how much she loved her entire family. She was a sweet and spunky woman, whose company I always enjoyed. I'm so very sorry for your loss - I know how much she meant to all of you. Sending prayers. Chris Boise
