“ Paul, We were in shock when we heard the news, we are so sorry, you and Trevor will be in our prayers. Cindy was a great person and we enjoy her company when she came to visit. We will pray that God gives you the wisdom to accept his will and to never loose faith in him. She will always be YOUR GUARDIAN ANGEL and will always be in our hearts. We are here for you and Trevor if you need us. Our love, James, Khristy and Eli

“ I was fortunate enough to work with Cindy for a short time frame. However, in that time frame I realized that Cindy was a very caring person, who would give you her last dime if needed. I also had MANY conversations about her son Trevor and baseball! I loved the look she had in her eye when talking about her son! May you all be surrounded by family and friends and know that Cindy was loved by many!
