

Czeslawa Irene Maligranda

August 12, 1948 - May 15, 2019

Czeslawa Irene Maligranda was born in Reutlingen, Germany in 1948. She immigrated to American with her family in 1956 through a sponsorship program offered by the World Church Organization. The Maligranda family lived on the sponsor's dairy farm in Pendelton, Indiana from 1956-1957, where they learned to speak English; then resided briefly in Anderson, Indiana from 1957-1958. The family moved to New London, Connecticut in 1958, where she graduated from high school. She briefly worked in Vermont and shortly after enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps. Due to a severe auto accident, she left the Marines and returned to Connecticut. In 1980, Irene and her mother moved to Manassas, Virginia, where she settle comfortably for her remaining years, enjoying her relaxing hobbies of painting and light journalism. She will be missed by the two brothers: Peter and Thad; one sister: Ursula; one sister-in-law: Collene; a niece: Jessica and her husband Jon, and their two children: Lizzy and Roman.
