“ Dj I’m going to miss you so much. I remember the first time I met you. Your Uncle Robert brought me over to the house and you were standing there in your diaper. You were this cute innocent little boy haha that’s what I that. You told your Uncle this is my girlfriend and jumped in my lap. That day we all became family. You were bad but what kid wasn’t. Your Uncle and I used to keep you and your sisters while your daddy had to work. I loved having you 3. I’m glad I got to see you a year ago and got a big hug from you. Before you pulled away you said I love you Aunt Crystal I’ll be back and yes you’re still my Aunt even though you aren’t married to my uncle. Rest in Paradise Dj and watch over us. I’ll be thinking about you every day. When our team wins I’ll cheer them on for you too. Go Cowboys. Love & miss ya ❤️😭😭😭😭

“ DJ my daughter loved you and the 2 Kids you have winter and summer love you. I remember Winters birth like yesterday it was my first grandchild and Samantha's dad had just passed months before so it was exciting and sad at the same time. You were by Sam side the entire time you were just as excited as any father. Your girls are good kids and you were the best father you could be. I have a lot of good memories of you and our conversations. Will miss you truly
