“ I worked with Dallas for over 10 years at a local community bank. Dallas was very well-liked by all the employees. He would meet me every morning before getting his day started. We had great conversations about his family, his military service, the Packers, and church. Dallas will be missed by many.

“ To the Dixon girls and grandchildren; Both Dallas and Helen were special friends and we were close while we lived in Nokesville, VA. We never lost contact, but our communications were mostly yearly at Christmas. While we lived in VA we shared many times of fellowship in our church and lots of Sunday evenings after service at Bob Evans for both eats and fellowship. We enjoy playing games at both of our homes. They were wonderful hosts and great friends. We will meet again someday in our Heavenly Home. May the Lord comfort all of you. We know you have so many wonderful memories to hold dear in your hearts. Until we meet again, Don and Linda Auffhammer
