“ Dear Aunt Karen, Alex and Family,

As a young child I always looked forward to Granny's busy house when we'd gather and Uncle Damon was always patient with us kids all the cousins and the mayhem we'd bring (not sure if I could survive us :). He found ways to keep us busy and we always had fun flying airplanes from the local dime store and watching him do projects in the garage. He was a good referee :) and a great Uncle I also have fond memories of going fishing with him Grandad and my Dad. Uncle Damon towered over us but we always knew there was a great man with great heart there for us. Love and peace ❤️ Roddy
