

Daniel Howard Barrett

August 7, 1935 - June 2, 2020

Daniel H. Barrett of Manassas passed away on Tuesday, June 2, 2020 at the age of 84 at Fair Oaks Hospital.

Danny was born August 7, 1935 in Warrenton, VA, the son of the late John E and Jessie Marie Wolfe Barrett. He graduated from Osbourn High School and attended Virginia Tech University and then served in the United States Army. He was raised on Sunnybrook Farm in Manassas and owned and operated Barrett Trucking and Recycling Center.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Joann Gaskins Barrett of Manassas, VA whose love and care saw Danny through the ups and downs of life, and his two daughters, Christina Barrett Douglas (Scott Douglas) of St. Petersburg, FL, Bonnie Barrett Boggus (Brian Boggus) of Clearwater, FL. His grandchildren, Brandon Chambers of Manassas, VA, Rachel Boggus and Sarah Boggus of Clearwater, FL and a spunky great granddaughter, Cheyenne Chambers of Manassas, VA. His first wife, Annie and his son, Mark Barrett preceded him in death. He also leaves behind two brothers, Jack Barrett (Betty Barrett) and Bob Barrett (Carol Barrett) and many in-laws, cousins, nieces and nephews.

All who knew Danny, knew he was a hard-working man who loved his work and trucks. Through the years he forged many lifelong friendships. Danny was a people person and loved company and conversation. He loved telling stories and had a bright personality. Danny was always welcoming with a big smile and loved hugs from the ladies. Danny will be dearly missed.

“ Joanne I'm so sorry to hear of Danny's passing. This world has lost a good man and I will miss him deeply. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family during this time of need. One memory we all can keep of Danny is always smiling and telling stories. I couldn't begin to tell you how many times over the years we would see one another and always end up talking for at least a hour telling stories. If their is anything I can do to help please reach out you too we're like family to me. Joe Doody

To many good memories to list . sure miss that smile and his laugh they were big and infectious. I think he was as hard headed as me. He's the only boss that would fire me one minute and be sitting at my door step telling me he had 5 loads of 57s going to nokesville. U wanna haulem. I thought you fired me ,again. Get back to work. That was about once a week. Smart man that Danny was. He was hard headed just like me. And big hearted. I wish he would have stayed around a bit longer. I'm sorry for ur loss Joanne. “ Danny was a great friend of my parents, Warren and Ann Walter Harrover. My mom used to tell a story about Danny tapping her on the shoulder in class one day when they were little saying, “Ann Walser, how do you spell Howard again?” He'd randomly show up in one of his big trucks in front of our house, leave it running in the street and come in for a visit. He'll be missed by many.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I can picture Danny and his big smile, from my youth and childhood, both as my daddy's friend, and from church. I also remember stomping my foot and giving him a piece of my (5 or 6 year old?) mind at church one Sunday. He asked how my “half sister”, Patricia (Trish) was and I informed him in no uncertain terms that she was my WHOLE sister! How ironic that Danny left Earth in June 2; that was the 17th anniversary of Bobby's passing. I'm sure they are enjoying a Heavenly reunion with many other “good ole boys” from the Manassas area. May God give you peace and comfort.

“ My father in law Bub Warner worked for Chantilly Crushed Stone and Danny Barrett hailed stone from there for years. My husband Wade Warner used to ride for Danny in the dump truck sometimes during the summer. Wade always use to tell me I never worried about being hungry because Danny had a grocery bag full of food. The first time I met Danny my husband and I were dating and went to prince William county fair. I had just got a hot dog and Danny took it from me and took a big ole bite out of it! He was a dear soul and anyone that knew him talked highly of him! RIP buddy you will be greatly missed and never forgotten!
