

Daniel Philip Frappier

April 27, 1951 - April 10, 2019

DANIEL PHILIP FRAPPIER, age 67 died on Wednesday, April 10, 2019 with his devoted wife, Sharon by his side.

He was born on April 27, 1951 in San Francisco, CA to the late Robert Lionel Frappier and Myra Belena Frappier, now 89 years old.

Dan retired in 2012 after dedicating over forty years of service to Giant Foods. He enjoyed the challenge of being a store manager and truly cared for the employees and co-workers on his team. He was unpretentious and always made people feel at ease with his light-hearted demeanor. He had unwavering resolve with whatever he faced and yet was able to bring humor into every situation. His positive outlook and love for life, his family and friends made him such a joy to be around. It was impossible to have a conversation with Dan without walking away laughing.

In retirement, he was able to increase indulgence in his favorite hobbies. He was an avid hunter, enjoyed spending time outdoors, and as we all know, an excellent tennis player. He also loved muscle cars and would frequently tool around town in his beloved Saleen Mustang. Dan took fashion cues from no one. He would don an Adidas tennis shirt with Nike tennis shoes and top it off with his favorite cowboy hat.

Despite his cancer diagnosis in 2017, Dan kept that bright personality right up to the end. His well lived life and humorous, upbeat attitude will always be a great example for us all.

He is predeceased by his granddaughter, Ella Grace.

Survivors include his loving wife Sharon King Frappier; 3 beautiful daughters, Christine Elaine Garcia and husband Aidan, Melissa Marie Hugill and husband Eddie, Julie Marie Frappier; 3 wonderful grandchildren, Trevor Hugill, Trenton Hugill and Adelynn Hugill; 9 brothers and sisters: Robert Douglas Frappier and wife Andrea of Pawleys Island, SC, Kenneth Frappier and wife Ruth of Elkton, MD, Suzanne Frappier Costa and husband Dave of Rochester, WA, Ronald Frappier of Plano, TX, Maura Michelle Tutt and husband Anthony of Manassas, VA, Marsha Frappier of Manassas, VA, Yvette Sullivan and husband Dennis of Manassas, VA, Yvonne Frappier of Lowell, NC and Charlene Frappier of Manassas, VA and 48 nieces and nephews.

The family will receive friends on Friday, April 19 at 1pm At Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia with a Memorial Service starting at 2pm with Father Dave Martin officiating.

All are welcome to the reception room at Pierce after the service for food and fellowship.

“ We both knew Dan by working with him many years at Giant Food. We also shopped in last store he was store manager at in Manassas #227. Great friend and co worker. Always smiled and was a funny guy. He is going to missed by many. He is now in a better place. God bless and prayers to him and his family.

“ My memory of Dan was meeting him at Fairfax Racquet Club several years ago. After playing several of us guys would sit around and shoot the breeze and talk sports even though Dan would give me a "hard time " being an Eagles fan. But deep down inside I realized Dan was a great guy who made time for you no matter what. I'm really going to miss him and those "guy talks". God bless his soul and his family.

“ I first met Dan in Leesburg when he was a customer of mine looking for a place to live. As I continued to work with Dan I quickly saw his many special qualities. He always greeted me with a big smile on his face and a very cheerful attitude, which could put anyone at ease. Dan was an extending and outgoing guy; someone you felt like you had known for years. He was also always sincerely interested in what was going on with you, showing interest in your family, work, and life... I later had the privilege to meet Sharon and work with Dan and Sharon as a couple. Dan's face would always BRIGHTEN and GLOW when Sharon was nearby. Sharon could always make Dan laugh. They clearly had a special relationship and enjoyed being together. Dan will be deeply missed he was truly a wonderful person.

Dan was a great person to know, with a wickedly subtle and mischievous sense of humor; I loved seeing him and Sharon interact. Ever affable and laid back, Dan really gave me a sense of what it was to enjoy life to the fullest, and I am thankful that he had time to enjoy his many hobbies after retirement. I am very sorry for everyone's loss, but we are all blessed that we were able to be a part of his life, and our memories of him will be our most fitting tribute. Rest in peace, Dan, you will be missed.
