“ Deepest condolences to the family. High school friend. Great concrete man. A brief memory of Danny who provided his Dad's pickup to haul our vw bug shell to the lawn of Garfield High School as our senior prank. Also helped to paint it up to commemorate the class of 85. Very sad to hear of his passing

To Danny's parents I don't know if you will remember me my name is Debbie silver I dated your son about 30 years ago. I just ran across his obituary and wanted to give you my condolences. I'm very sorry for your loss. Your son was a very good man. I ran into him a couple of times when I came to Virginia to visit. I just wanted you to know I'm very very sorry. I loved your son very much at one time. I hope everything is going well in your life and that's your future is bright. Please take care and thank you for putting a joy in my life by bringing Danny into the world. Thank you.
