“ Milt and I want to wish all of Danny's family our deepest sympathy. We met Danny when we moved to Sarasota in 1985. Milt was the chef at Patrick's where Danny worked. I had the pleasure of meeting Danny through Patrick's. We had some great times together. I used to hang out with Danny and Hank. We had some great talks together. Milt, Danny and Bryan Bruce took a road trip to New York City in the late eighties. You can imagine what that road trip was like!!! From what I hear(I'm sure not all) they had a great time!!! When you were with Danny you couldn't have a bad time. Milt was just telling me about the time he popped in to see Danny at home and the Redskins game was on. He was all decked out in Redskins gear down to the rosary beads he had around his neck. He always got a litte over excited about his Redskins!!! What a fan. He was always so upbeat and smiling. We lost touch when he moved back to Virginia. We were just talking about him with Bryan and asked him if he had heard from Danny recently. He will be greatly missed!!! We will never forget the many great memories we had with Danny!!

Our sincere condolences,

“ To Danny's family,

I know your family was greatly blessed by having Danny in your lives and that you will all miss him very much.

Gene and I both worked with Danny at Marina Jack restaurant and considered him a friend. He was always fun and was of great moral character and compassion.

Please accept our sympathy.

“ I was shocked to see Danny's picture in the paper. He is going to be truly missed. I met Danny at Patrick's restaurant when we both worked together in the kitchen. Danny was the "big shot" expeditor and I was his "food running slave". We all had alot of laughs, from drinking all of the chefs milk, to eating everything in site. Danny liked his COLD milk and I was more than willing to eat with him. After work, we all got together to watch sporting events, and have a few. Those times seem so long ago and life seemed much easier. I recall the trip Milty, Danny and I took to New York for a three game series with the Yankees and Romano's beloved A's. Thanks to John Knowles, we had a very special time. After we left New York and a little train ride down South, we were on to Mom and dad's and a three game set in Baltimore. Mom made this awesome pasta dish with marinara sauce with Chesapeake Bay crab meat. Memories like those are what I remember. God Bless The Romano Family.

“ I worked with Danny at the Children's Crisis Stabilization Unit for a few years. He was a wonderful colleague and great with the children. The kids loved him because he cared and was fair. One day our census was very low, all the children were discharged except for one. We got permission from administration and the child's parent for an impromptu field trip. We took the child to Jungle Gardens and then swimming at Danny's town house pool. The child was thrilled, especially with the swimming part. Danny you will be missed. When you left to help your Mom during her illness I didn't know it was a final goodbye. Hope you are happy and at peace. C ya.
