“ Daryl and I were very close cousins with a special relationship. I have so many great memories that will keep him with me now that he is resting in Peace. My heart goes out to his wife Connie and my nephews Ben and Chip. For his father Chip and brother Craig, I am with them in spirit as I am in Sweden and cannot attend Daryl's memorial service. My sincerest sympathies go out to all that knew my cousin. RIP Daryl.

“Connie, Chip and Ben, I was so sorry to hear of Darryl's passing. He was a very kind, sweet and gentle soul. I enjoyed talking with him at Thanksgiving. He and I peeled the eggs one year and shared a lot of laughs while doing so. My fondest memory is the year he set up fireworks in your back yard for Mary's birthday. He was so happy doing special things for others. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers and the memory of Darryl in my heart. I love you!!

“ Well this will be about the fourth time I have tried to right this,As I write so many memories start flooding in and I don't know where to begin. I look back at our "group" sitting around the dinning room table having the best conversations and sharing the best the true friendships had to offer.Darryl would always make sure that if there was a lag he would come up with something to get it going again. Oh man those cookouts we had were the best.Once again you know Darryl was there making sure the grill was going full out and churning out the food. I even remember when we volunteered at the snack bar for the boys little league baseball Darryl would be yelling out the orders and keep us going even though we were all on the verge of heat stroke. I know I have not seen you all for awhile but the times that I have it has just like going home again. Connie you and Darryl have raised two fine young men that have been blessed with having parents that did not hide things from them and let them know what was going on and being real with them. You both let them express their thoughts and feelings in ways that most kids didn't get a chance to. When I think about Darryl with the boys I just think about how much he loved them and showed it.And Connie you and Darryl had such a unique relationship. No matter what there was never a doubt of how much you loved each other. To the rest of both sides of the family and friends just remember how Darry'l was always quick to give you a smile and heartfelt hello. Love to all.Sharon Martin
