Pastor David Carl Baird, 64, of Amissville, VA passed away on Sunday, April 11, 2021 at his home with his wife and sons by his side.

He graduated from Brunswick County High School in 1975 and Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia in 1979.

David was called to preach as a teenager and his love for the Word of God was the guiding influence of his life. He devoted himself to his family and to planting and building churches. He began his ministry as an evangelist and transitioned to pastoral ministry at Vienna Assembly of God in 1985. In 1999, he would plant what many people in the community would come to know and love as The Life Church (now, Love Church), which became a pillar church in the northern Virginia area for the last decade and is now led by his oldest son and daughter-in-law, Josh and Brittney.

For those who knew Pastor David, they knew how much he loved JoAnn and the life they enjoyed with their kids and grandkids. Whether he was coaching, cheering or yelling at the refs, he was an active, passionate part of all of the sports and activities in which they participated and never missed a game nor an opportunity to show his support for them.

Not only did he coach many teams, he also served on the boards of both the Gainesville District Basketball Association as well as the Gainesville District Little League.

Pastor David left an indelible impact on thousands of lives with his larger than life personality and deep love for people. He poured his knowledge and experience into thousands of pastors in ministry networks around the world. At the time of his death, he was serving on the board of Mighty Oaks Foundation, a faith-based, non-profit organization reaching our nation's veterans, active duty servicemen and their families who are dealing with combat trauma. He was also giving spiritual oversight to two church congregations in their leadership transitions.

His legacy lives on through his wife, his sons and their wives, his grandchildren, his spiritual sons and daughters and his church family.

“ David Baird - one of a kind! My Bible Quiz competitor, my friend with memories from Lake Gaston to Manassas, my boss when you were District Youth Director. You were always willing to assist in any way needed, and definitely always good for a laugh. Plus you married up when you married Jo Ann and became part of our family. :)
Love you lots and see you later. Linda

“ Joanne, Josh, Jordan & Justin, we were terribly sadden to hear of David's passing. He was a wonderful person, husband, father, and a friend and especially a man of God. He and Joanne raised 3 wonderful boys who grew up to carry on his love of God. The reunions we have had brings back so many memories. They won't be the same without David. He loved to tease, laugh and enjoy life. Buddy & I will always be sorry for the lost of your husband, father, grandfather and our friend. God bless all of your family.

“ To the Baird family, I am so sorry to hear of David's passing. I didn't see David much after highschool. But I heard a lot about him. I considered him to be one of my best friends in highschool. I have very fond memories of spending weekends with his family. Especially eating Sister Baird's home cooking. It was amazing to listen to him quote whole chapters from the Bible. He loved basketball and we played many a pickup game. He was the mainstay of our Bible quiz team. I could go on, but I'll just say my prayers are for his family. May they find comfort and peace in God's Holy Spirit.
