

David Joseph Russell Callen

March 10, 1995 - January 30, 2025

David Joseph Russell Callen, 29, of Manassas, passed away unexpectedly January 30, 2025

Born on March 10, 1995, at Keesler Air Force Base, Biloxi, Mississippi, to David and Teresa Callen. When he was six months old his military family was stationed in Sigonella, Sicily and he spent 3 years with an Italian babysitter, in her home. After leaving Sigonella, when he was three and a half years old, they moved to Manassas, Virginia, where David attended Osborn Park High School and New Directions Alternative School graduating in August 2014. David started working in the field of construction after graduating and decided to join the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers with Local Union 26, Manassas, Virginia in 2017.

Survivors include his father David, previously from Minnesota and his mother Teresa from Virginia, maternal grandparents Clarence and Janet Callen of Toivola, Minnesota and paternal grandparents Roger and Edna Comer of Chase City, Virginia, numerous aunts, uncles, cousin's and two very special brother's/best friends Devin Trammel and Tony Byrnes.

“ So many memories of David, He was the kid that was always there to help when you needed help. He was the kid that walked around the neighborhood singing is heart out, always a smile or a joke for anyone who needed it. He was always with Quinn doing boy stuff , fishing, hunting, and always happy to tell you about what he caught that day. He was a good human and he will be missed by so many. My heart is broken , Rest well David, till we meet again, Love to your family, Love and hugs deena keniston
