“ Remembering going to your Paps house around 1994, when they were nursing the little squirrel that was orphaned, shooting at targets, having a blast. Lots of other stories from our times in Fairfax and Chantilly. Rest easy Byron!

*I was there then!!!! I shot my first gun!
Been thinking about that squirrel and what its name was. Big boy maybe?*

“ So many fun memories I could share with the 2.5 years I dated Byron. One of my top three was getting snowed in at the condo in Oakton. We walked to the store to get food and beer. Then we cooked and had our snow day. Byron was always up for a fun adventure.

I will never stop thinking about you my friend. “The Mountains Win Again”

“ I'll never forget all the fun & exciting times
Byron & I shared.

One time while target shooting we accidentally started a fire on his grandfathers old runway from hitting a special target.

Luckily we quickly extinguished it. That didn't go over too well!
B (as I called him) had an infectious laugh & smile & I'll always cherish our countless memories together.

You're dearly missed Byron & gone way too soon.

Rest in Peace brother!
