

David Albert Desselle

January 19, 1957 - June 2, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of David Albert Desselle, a beloved husband, father, and mentor. Born on January 19, 1957, in San Diego, California, David lived a life dedicated to his family, his craft, and the many lives he touched along the way.

David was the devoted husband of Beverly Desselle, and together they built a life filled with love and laughter. He was the proud father of Scarlett Nunes, who is married to Bryan Nunes, and David Desselle, who is married to Melissa Desselle. His family was his greatest joy, and he cherished every moment spent with them, especially his three grandsons, Matthew, Samuel, and Lincoln, whom he adored.

Throughout his long and accomplished career as a contractor, David not only mastered his craft but also generously shared his knowledge with others, teaching many the art of welding. His dedication to his trade and his willingness to guide and mentor those around him made an immeasurable impact on countless individuals.

David's legacy lives on in the skills he passed down, the love he shared, and the memories he leaves behind. His unwavering kindness, wisdom, and dedication will never be forgotten.

He will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

“ Two things about David I would like to share with you: he gave me an opportunity to work with him on weekends and during the summers to earn additional income for my family outside my regular teaching hours. He was a generous and beloved brother-in-law; secondly, I once, and only once, asked him for a ride in his cherished Chevy Chevelle Super Sport. I have never been in a car that went one-hundred miles per hour in a vacant parking lot. God speed, David. You and Fonzi knew what cool was all about.

“ David was a wonderful Brother-In-Law
If you asked him to help you out with something he would say “I’m
On It”
At family events he would always play with the kids, the water guns were his thing it was always so much fun them running around trying to get him.
He is dearly missed.

“ David was a great friend and a easy going person who loved to laugh. I had the pleasure of being able to share many of life's enjoyable moments with him and his family. He was definitely the definition of the word "cool". He would do anything you ask of him, and was always uplifting to those who knew him. I'm really saddened by his passing and pray for comfort to his family.
