“ Mr. Landis was a patient at the office that i worked at, and whenever we saw him on our schedule we knew it was going to be a good day. He always came in with a smile on his face and joked around with us girls like he was one of us. We will have nothing but good memories of this sweet man.

“ I had the special honor of being Abie's pastor (1997-2006). He and Mae always called me "Little Joe" unless the occasion was serious and then is was (very briefly) "Rev. Joe." Our sons enjoyed his model train set up in the attic. He loved Mae like "nothing else." And family, church, and others always came before himself. His faith and encouragement made me a better husband, father, pastor, and man. I will miss him.

“ I came to know David and Mae after we were transferred to the Manassas-Gainesville area in 1997. I would walk the Manassas Mall for exercises, and while walking around one day, and as I circled the food court, David jumped up to stop me and said "I bet you are a Military Man-- I can tell by the way you are digging your heels in and leaning back as if you are marching along." Well, he nailed it on the head as I had retired a few years back from the Air Force. He then grabbed my arm and invited me to join him, Mae, and several others of whom we all became friends. Since we moved back to Texas, we have stayed in touch by phone and even better, about 2-3 years ago, my wife and I were fortunate enough to fly up and visit our good friends. From our first day of meeting David & Mae, my wife and I have considered them as best of friends and we think the world of them.

I have fond memories too that after our walks, there were times when we (David, Mae, and our good bubby Mel) would take various "field trips." As we all started to pull out of the Mall parking lot, David would tell me that he would go any place with me as long as I got him back home before dark!

One of his quint characteristics was when anybody mentioned money, he would rub this fingers together indicating where is the "MONEY" -- and everyone would laugh.

David was an amazing and sweet man, he will be greatly missed.
