

David Lynn Nalls

August 3, 1953 - May 25, 2026

The world became a little brighter on August 3, 1953, the day David Lynn Nalls was born at Winchester Medical Center. Son of the late Hugh Mason “Johnny” Nalls and Dollie Mae Nalls, Dave was raised in Rectortown, VA where he lived for several years. On May 25, 2026, that same world said goodbye to someone who made it better simply by being in it.

Dave graduated from Fauquier High School. Upon graduation he was employed with Vulcan Materials Company as a driller, where he was known as “BIG Dave”. He remained with the company until he retired in 2022 after 48 years of excellence.

Dave never met a stranger, loved deeply, and found joy in life’s small moments. He enjoyed fishing, camping, baseball, football, weekend drives, and spending time with family (including his Parkview family). Dave loved to spend time at Parkview trading jokes and having good times with old friends. His greatest accomplishment was being a dad, grandfather and great grandfather. He loved his grandchildren with everything he had and was so proud of their accomplishments. Together with Debbie, Dave built a 37-year partnership rooted in unconditional love and loyalty.

He is survived by his loving partner-Debbie Hewett, son-David Lynn Nalls, Jr (Alicia), grandson-Lance(Lauren), granddaughter-Sydney, great grandson-Crew, sisters-Joan Newsome, Paula “Muggie” Grice, Sandy Kemper, brother-Kenneth “Kenny” Nalls, step-children-Charles Grove (Rebecca), John Williams (Jen), Leslie Williams and many nieces and nephews.

Friends and family are invited to share stories and honor a life well lived.
