“ Dear Family: We, the families of The Compassionate Friends, send you our heartfelt condolences. The Compassionate Friends is an international grief support group for parents, grandparents and siblings who have suffered the heartbreaking loss of a child. Our only mission is to provide comfort, hope and support to every family experiencing the death of a son or daughter, brother or sister, or grandchild, and to help others better assist the grieving family. We meet monthly in Manassas from 7:30-9 PM on the third Wednesday of each month at Buckhall United Methodist Church, 10251 Moore Drive, Manassas, VA 20111. If and when you are ready to do so, please join us. We Need Not Walk Alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

“ I had just heard the news last night from a friend of both Dave in mine. I served in the army with Dave and stayed in contact and hung out after we both got of the army. I couldn't believe what I heard. He is really gone. He was my friend, even dated for a little while. I cried so hard last night. He texted me 2 weeks ago....he texted me "Just wanted you to know I was thinking about you." We told each other almost everything. I have a lot of amazing memories with Dave. He will be sorely missed. Prayers to his family. I miss you Dave....

“ Linda and family. Im just so sorry for your family's loss. David was taken early for reasons we'll not understand until the day god takes us home. No words can describe the pain a mother feels when she loses a child.

Linda you and I have been friends since we were in elementary school and I just want to say I love you beyond word's and understand I will always be here for you even if it means just sitting together in silence. This life is just a mere comma leading us to forever and even though David has left the physical world he now lives forever in God's kingdom. Open your heart and your mind and he will continue to come and bring you comfort in subtle ways. When you talk to him he will listen. Today David is pure peaceful and happy. If anyone in the family needs a listening ear I'm here. Everyone in your family is part of my family and I love you all dearly. May David rest in peace and may you and your family find peace that he's now in a better place. Today he celebrates earning his beautiful wings.
