“ My condolences to the family members of David. Fo so many years he was in charge of distribution of the Washington Post and introduced monthly billing rather than the old door-to-door. He always responded to late /non delivered paper calls. Yes, my house was part of his portfolio of clients. A good man.

“ Linda, Davey, Clinton, and family,

My deepest sympathies to all of you. It is really hard for me to remember a time when I did not see David growing up. I remember him working at the Exxon Station, delivering newspapers, at my Grandparents house, etc. He was everywhere and was always very kind to me. I hope you are able to cherish the memories you and others have of him.
