“I come to the garden alone, While the dew is still on the roses,
And the voice I hear falling on my ear, The son of God discloses...
And He walks with me, and He talks with me, And He tells me I am His own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there, None other, has ever, known!”

“ I will always remember Dee fondly. There was a time that it seemed like I saw her every day as I was walking my dogs. She would come down the road in her Charger - smiling and laughing when she slowed so we could chat. I will miss that. Dee was a lovely person who I was lucky to know. Sending love and hugs to all of her family and friends.

So sad to hear of Dee's passing. She loved to dance to CCR and sing and laugh. She was an old soul with a young girls heart. I will always remember the late night talks filled with hugs and tears. Rest In Peace Dee.

I did not know Dee at all, but I was blessed to work with her Mom during her Mom's hospitalization. Her Mom called Dee her best friend and she is grieving terribly over the loss of her lovely daughter.
