

Deborah May King

August 5, 1955 - February 13, 2019

Deborah “Debbie” May King, age 63, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, February 13, 2019. She was a long time resident of Nokesville, Virginia. She was born in Warrenton Virginia to Gladys and Richard North Fletcher. She’s been with and married to Dwight for almost 50 years until her passing.

Debbie’s life was her family. She was a loving mother, wife, grandmother and friend. She was an incredible cook, who’s known for her famous cheesecakes. She passed her love for cooking to all of her children. Debbie also loved flower arranging, a skill she acquired while working at Richie’s flower shop during the 70’s. Debbie also worked as a meter reader for Northern Virginia Electric Company.

Debbie is survived by her husband Richard Dwight King, Daughters Courtney King, Victoria King, Son Dwight King, daughter-in-law Jaimie and Brother James “Jimmy” Fletcher and sister-in-law Darlene Fletcher. She is also survived by five grandchildren: Fletcher, Jaxon, Samantha, Cason and Macie; many nieces and nephews, a sister in law Audrey and brother in laws: Johnny, Larry and Donald.

Debbie’s viewing will be held at Pierce’s funeral home 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia, 20110 on Sunday February 17, 2019 between 2 and 5pm . Her funeral service will also take place at Pierce’s the following day on Monday at 10:30am. The burial will be at Catlett Cemetery immediately following funeral services.

A special Thanks to Haymarket Inova CCU doctor's, nursing staff and respiratory team and Capital Caring Alder center and hospice staff for making Debbie's final time pain and anxiety free. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Alder Capital Caring Center in Aldie, VA .<http://www.capitalcaring.org/donate>

“ You are gone my sweet and beautiful niece, but not forgotten you and I through the years had some wonderful times together. I will always remember your beautiful smile and the way you were always trying to help when someone was down. You are now in no more pain and in peace in heaven with our Lord and savior Jesus. I pray for all your family left behind that their hearts are broken now , but knowing that you’re not suffering anymore will be a blessing to them. I pray that Jesus will Lift up your family and give them the strength and peace that they need in their time of sorrow. May God Bless them all.

“ *Debbie,
Family gatherings are so special, and oh how we miss the times when Edna (my mom), Pat, Marie, and Audrey were all here to celebrate together. I remember you living in a trailer next to Granddaddy Jack's house when you and Dwight were expecting your first child, Courtney. One Sunday we had a picnic in Granddaddy's front yard. Well, all of the four sisters were singing, laughing and talking, and dancing around to the boombox music someone was playing, while others played ball. Of course, there was plenty of food and children running around. Just family being close and having fun, and that's what it's all about - family. You were a great mom and made it look easy, while you tore up the kitchen with your baking and cooking fried chicken, etc. You had an easy going nature which I will miss. You did good, Debbie, and your family thinks so, too. Kay Newton*

“ My dear sweet cousin, I am so sorry to learn of her passing. As soon as I heard of her passing, I said a prayer that God would bring her swiftly to him. Whenever I remember us growing up together as kids, I see her full of energy running all throughout the neighborhood playing. She was always outside playing. She just loved to play. My heart goes out to the family. Bernadette Fletcher Jones
