

Deborah Elaine Smith

August 16, 1953 - May 13, 2015

Deborah (Debbie) Elaine Baker Smith, 61, of Manassas, VA went to be with her Lord and Savior on Wednesday, May 13, 2015.

Debbie was a loving, kind and gentle spirit with a generous soul, an infectious laugh, and a beautiful smile.

She was born in Washington D.C. the daughter of the late George Leroy and Peggy Ann (Bledsoe) Baker and was preceded in death by her sister, Jenny Baker. She leaves one son, Conrad "Alex" Smith of Manassas, VA, and is also survived by her brother, George Leroy (Butch) Baker III and a sister, Lisa Baker Qualls and her husband Shelby.

Debbie was a Facility Security Officer processing security clearances with 18 years of experience in the Department of Defense and Public Trust security arena including corporate, personnel, and physical security. She was an active member of New Covenant Fellowship, a participant in the Christian Artist Fellowship and a Sunday School Teacher. She was an active member of Toastmasters International and enjoyed writing and presenting speeches. Her favorite type of speech was the humorous speech for which she won trophies and awards in speech competitions. She graduated from Northern Virginia Community College with an Associates Degree in Science. She was an avid amateur photographer, her favorite subjects were of nature, people and animals. Debbie enjoyed creating detailed scrapbooks, and would often make them as gifts for other people, using photos she had taken of their events. She loved hand making greeting cards and gifting others with them.

The family invites all relatives and friends to the burial service to be held on Friday, May 22, 2015 at 1100 at Green Hill Cemetery, 446 N Buckmarsh Street, Berryville, VA 22611.

Relatives and Friends are invited to the Celebration of Life Services for Debbie, on Saturday, May 23, 2015, at 10 AM at her church, New Covenant Fellowship, 8624 Phoenix Drive, Manassas, VA 20110.
