“ I still think of you daily Debbie. Since you have been gone, the rest of them have just gotten worse...I am sure you know what I am talking about. I knew that when you left I was gonna be on my own...you would not believe the things that have gone on since you have been gone. To be honest, me and my family are the only ones that speak your name...I miss you so much and still think of your laugh , I can't get it out of my head...thankfully. You were such a good friend to me and always will remain in my heart.
I still think of the day you fell off the porch and i decided to fall with you, just so you wouldn't look like an idiot all by yourself! Those were good times...and all our "ghost hunting"...those were the days! Me and Juanita still talk about you and your goofy laugh and the hell you went through before your death...i will never forgive them for what they did and will always blame the stress they put you under for causing you to leave so early...
I will see you again one day!
I love you!
