“ From the first time we met, i saw a person who gave everything of herself and asked nothing in return. I could see that you were loved and adored by your family. My only regret is that i wish i had more time to get to know you.

“ I will always remember how when I had hard times in my life, Debbie would be there to listen, give advice and hugs. Even though at times she had financial problems, she would buy me a few food items to help my financial problems, without wanting anything in return. I will miss her smile and the way she knew i got embarrassed easily, so she would always try to make me turn red in front of people. It always worked. She brightened my days.

Debbie and I always talked about everything, from my life to hers. She had that proud look on her face when talking about her grandchildren. I think I heard of every cute thing they did, and every game they played in. She talked about her daughters all the time, she loves them so much.

I could write about her all day, she left me so many memories. I felt like she was my mother, she knew things about me that my mom doesn't even know, and helped me out more than my family had. I'll always be thankful for having known her. Debbie was/is a great person, one of the best, I'll miss everything about her.

“ Thank you all for your kind words. You all were very special people to her who she spoke of often.

My mom has been gone for nearly 4 months and it still hurts like it just happened yesterday. I miss her more than words could ever describe. My sisters and I will never be the same.

Love you Mama.
