

Debra Whitlock

January 25, 1957 - April 3, 2015

Debra Whitlock, of Nokesville, Virginia (and Murrells Inlet, SC) passed away on Friday, April 3, 2015 (Good Friday) at her home, she was 58 years young.

Debra was born in Ocala, FL on January 25, 1957. Her parents were Faye and Donald Easterling. She was raised in Surfside Beach, SC. She grew up as the second child of five children, two brothers and two sisters. Debra graduated from Socastee High School. In 1974, she married her high school sweetheart, Rhett Whitlock, they remained married for 40 years.

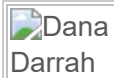

Debra always had the gift of gab and could talk with anyone. She loved her children dearly and told them often. She was very giving, thoughtful, and never missed calling her children early on their birthdays, while always singing "Happy Birthday to you..." --off key. She was a wonderful cook and loved to bake her delicious pecan pound cake that everyone loved. She always loved the water and enjoyed being in the sun. She was a beautiful lady who never left the house without her high heels on.

Debra is survived by her sons, Corky Whitlock of Nokesville, VA, Richard Whitlock of Atlanta, GA, Aaron Whitlock of Nokesville, VA, and Aiden Whitlock of Nokesville, VA; her daughter-in-laws, Heather Whitlock of Nokesville, VA, Brandi Whitlock of Nokesville, VA and Casey Whitlock of Atlanta, GA; Her sisters, Scarlet Lee of Garden City, SC and Sophia Gamble of Charleston, SC; her brother, Don Easterling of Atlanta, GA; three grandchildren, Anna Whitlock, Brady Whitlock and Avery Whitlock. She is predeced in death by her brother, Terry Easterling of Garden City, SC and her parents, Donald and Faye.

Debra's family will scatter her ashes in the Atlantic Ocean, Murrells Inlet, and other special places in the near future. Family and friends will be notified.
