“ *We send our greatest sympathies to the entire family.
(We have been gone from the area and lost touch, so this is a complete shock for us. )
Delana was a wonderful mother, grandmother. She watched our daughter Tori and I had the great fortune to get to know her a little more as a friend because our girls (Samantha & Tori) were great friends when they were younger.*

“ Our thoughts are with you and your family during this time of sadness. May you endure these days with the help of Almighty God (John 11:25) because he is always there to provide strength and comfort as you try to cope with such a deep loss. Delana touched the lives of others and will be sadly missed.
