“Delgie and I first met in the Air Force Police Academy Technical School back in 1981. He was a few weeks ahead of me in training, but we hit it off immediately. We found out we were both would be stationed at Davis-Monthan AFB, AZ, which was great because, he was from Tucson. I remember one day seeing him and some other trainees looking kind of sad around the table. I asked him what was up, and he told me he was selected to Combat Training School at Ft. Sam Houston, TX. That meant at least another six more weeks in the Texas weather and being away from family. I teased him a little and told him I was glad it wasn't me. I spoke two weeks too soon; I too would be enjoying an extended stay in Texas courtesy of the military.

We met up again in Tucson as a matter of fact, we moved into the same apartment complex. Delgie and I became great friends and I have nothing but fond memories of him and his family. I remember the birth of his children especially Little Delgie, playing football on our breaks and finding out how good he was. We shared the bond of loving and serving Jesus Christ.

Just recently he and I had got back in touch with each other. So, it was very shocking to hear of his passing. My heart hurts not just myself but for his family and friends because I can only imagine the love they have for him.

I have so much more I can say but Delgie I will save that for the time we see each other again. My love and sympathy to his family, Greetings Ms. Yolanda and kids...I know you guys are adults...Don't worry God got you.

“ I met Delgie well over fifty years ago, as we were teenagers at the Grace Temple Baptist Church of Tucson, Arizona. In January of 1973, at the age of 13, I was hired to assist their youth music director Gerri Payne as a youth choir music accompanist, and Delgie was about 12 at the time, and was one of the most gifted vocalists in the choir with an humble spirit. From the time I left Grace Temple in December of 1976, Delgie and I lost contact with each other until about sometime during the '90s, when he was in Dallas for an event with local singing entertainer Martha Burks. Delgie and I would finally connect again on Facebook just a few years ago. It's with a distinct heaviness that I reminisce on our teenage years in the wake of his passing, as I wish we had remained in closer contact. My prayers are for his sister Dansiea and their mother, as well as his children, extended family and friends as they process and adjust to Delgie's physical absence. I pray mightily for God's mercy, comfort and strength in the days, months and years ahead. May God bless and keep you all.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Delgie in 2009 when he joined our SRA Security team as the Facility Security Officer. Delgie was a gentle giant who was always kind to everyone he met and simply a joy to be around! He was the sweetest man I have ever known. I am saddened by the fact that he was called home way too soon. I will truly miss his smile and his big laugh. Rest in Heaven my friend!
