

Delois Pritchett Goode

December 12, 1939 - May 10, 2020

a.k.a. Mother Goode, died on May 10, 2020 in Manassas, Virginia. Delois was born on December 12, 1939 in Danville, Virginia to the late, Willie and Rosa Pritchett. Delois moved to Alexandria Virginia in 1959 and spent most of her working career (Dietitian) at Alexandria Hospital and Dewitt Army Hospital.

Mother Goode loved her family very much and brought joy to all who were around her. She loved to laugh and tell weird and kind of funny jokes. Also, she enjoyed shopping, talking, swimming and REALLY loved to sing. She blessed her daughters by expressing how much she appreciated their respect, attentiveness, and love. Repeatedly, she would say to them, "When I go home to be with the Lord, don't shed one tear over me because you have given me my flowers...." Her grand/great grandchildren were her precious jewels and she loved them greatly.

Mother Goode was a beloved "Senior Mother" at One God Ministry Apostolic Church located in Fairfax, Virginia. Her greatest desire was that everyone would know her precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She spent most of her life, professing His truths to neighbors and coworkers. She visited hospitals, nursing homes, etc. for the cause of Christ. She always had a song to sing and a word to express about her beloved Savior. "I've been running for Jesus a long time and I ain't got tired yet", she would say; or "I will bless the Lord at all times"; or "I love the Lord and I ain't playing church". Mother Goode is remembered also for her warm "Thank you" and "I love you". Some of her favorite songs were, "I Can't Let A Day Go By Without Praising His Name", "Amazing Grace", "I Won't Complain", "I Love The Lord", "He Touched Me", and "I Still Have Joy".

She will be miss. But her memories will be cherished. She has served her God faithfully, and in turn, is in His presence as intended before the world's forming. We will love her always.

All services will be private. She will be laid to rest at Quantico National Cemetery in Triangle, VA

Thank you for your continued prayers for the family.

In lieu of flowers, please send a monetary gift to: Birmingham Green, Attn: Andre Porter, 8605 Centreville Road, Manassas, VA 20110-8426 in loving memory of Delois P. Goode.
