“ Met Denny in 1985 on brick laying job with Beacon Masonry. Denny left them and started his own company with John Donnelly. Dave Wampler soon joined the fray as another boss soon after. Denny and John merged with Monarc Construction around 1987. I worked with them for the next 3 years before being laid off in 1990. I rode with Denny in his old blue truck. We'd get our beer after work and talk about things. He was a Viet Nam Vet, seeing heavy fighting in Contien. He got some medals i heard. Denny didn't talk about the war much, only saying that he had great respect for the Vietnamese soldiers, calling them the best jungle fighters in the world. He was surly and nasty a lot of mornings. Nam did that to a lot of people. Times were different back then. I left brick laying in 91 for good. Denny taught me a lot about working hard and being on time. I think about him sometimes. He was a good dude. I miss my old little buddy. God bless you Cis

“ My friend, my buddy I will miss you terribly. I am saddened at your death and will keep your brothers and sisters in my prayers. These past few days since hearing of your passing, I have found myself reminiscing about along time ago on Amherst Drive. Those memories have made me smile and cry. You use to call me the 4-eyed whop! We had such good times (the group of us) you know who all I mean. Rest in peace Denny and one day we will chat about the good times and laugh together. I've already told my special angels to take care of you. You will be missed.

“ Denny, it was an honor and a gift to have been able to get to know you over the last 5-years. I looked forward to seeing you, hearing your stories, your laugh and life lessons everyday. You will be greatly missed by all! Every time it rains I'll think of you, and think of how you're up in Heaven working on Heavens plumbing.
